

QUALITY POLICY

Dynamox S.A. through its integrated management system, guides the activities of production of temperature and vibration sensing devices, with wireless communication interface, for monitoring industrial machinery and equipment and the production of instruments for data collection and transmission of temperature and vibration sensing devices, based on the following principles:

- Systemically manage processes with a focus on quality and on meeting the customers and other stakeholders' expectations;
- Permanently monitor and mitigate the risks inherent to the business;
- Maintain an adequate and safe work environment for the workforce;
- Strengthen business relationships with suppliers in order to improve performance;
- Respect the applicable laws and regulations;
- Attract, engage and retain talents promoting the professional development of collaborators.
- Continuously seek to improve and innovate processes and the management system;